

Providers and Resources

YDI

- Tutoring, after-school activities, gang intervention, school drop-out prevention, families counseling services, youth sports, internships, leadership development, GED studies, substance abuse and AIDS education, Dare To Be You Parenting Classes, Underage Drinking Prevention, Art Therapy, TUPAC, YDI/VIDA CACFP Food Program, NMPCA/Medicaid Enrollment, YDI-VIDA(Child and Adult Food Program, Project Succeed
- SPECIFIC PROGRAMS INCLUDE: Wise Men & Wise Women Mentorship Program, Teatro Consejo, 21st Century Learning Centers, & Tutoring for academic Success
 - Sources: www.guidestar.org; www.ydinm.org

UNM-Adult Basic Education

- GED Prep, Employability Skills, College Prep, English as a Second Language, Employ-ability (application processing, the job search, resume writing, communication skills, work relationships, financial responsibility, ethics in the workplace, maintaining employment, time management, the art of interview, communication skills)
 - Sources: <http://vcabe.unm.edu> or call 505-925-8900

Albuquerque HealthCare for the Homeless

- Primary Care Services (Con Ninos, Dental Care), Social & Behavioral Health Day Services (Harm Reduction and Other Outreach, ArtStreet, STARS, Counseling & therapy), Residential Programs (Casa Los Arboles, Tierra del Sol, Villa de Paz)
 - Sources: www.abqhch.org Phone: 505-766-5197

New Mexico Works Program

- Life Skills, Adult Basic Education/GED, Alcohol/Drug treatment, Domestic Violence Services, Job Training, Community Service, Work Experience, Post Secondary Education, Employment
 - Source: <http://spectre.nmsu.edu/dept/academic.html>

Job Corps

- Outreach & Admissions (How Job Corps can start them on a career path), Career Preparation Period (Learn about life in Job Corps.), Career Development Period (Learn a trade), Career Transition Services (Begin Career)
 - Source: www.del-jen.com/jobcorps/jcalbqq.htm

Midwest CAP (Community Action Project)

- STAR Program (Program which helps students learn employment skills through job shadowing and skills building; Assists students in becoming self-sufficient, including how to write a resume, appropriate dress, life skills and day care), Financial Assistance for rent and/or utilities, food and clothing pantry.
 - Source: Eloisa Guana, Director – 505-287-8262

UNM-Health Sciences Center Children's Psychiatric Hospital

- Assessment and Evaluation, Acute Hospitalization, Residential Treatment , Partial Hospitalization, Outpatient Psychotherapies (individual, family and group), Psychiatric Medication, Outpatient Substance Abuse Therapy, School-based Mental Health Services, Home-based Mental Health Services, Home-based Treatment , Consultation, Agency Consultation and Training, ADHD services, Education and Training, Case Management , Behavior Management, Behavior Management Services, Forensic Evaluations, Therapeutic Recreational Services, State Department of Education Accredited school
 - Source: 1001 Yale Blvd. NE – Albuquerque, N.M. 87131-5631 Phone: 505-272-2890

Eagles' Wings Youth Ranch

- Free summer camp program (Activities include: archery, horsemanship, swimming, adventure recreation and ropes with an emphasis on helping the campers stay safe while they have fun and learn to make right choices.
 - Source: Albert and Dianne Hogan, Directors – 505-847-0062 – Website: www.ewyouthranch.com.

New Mexico Department of Health

- Immunizations (free service), WIC (Supplemental nutrition program for pregnant or breast-feeding women and for infants and children), Pregnancy Testing, Family Planning, HIV/AIDS Testing, TB Screening, Families First (Care Coordination for Medicaid eligible pregnant women and for children birth to 3 year of age), Children's Medical Service, Health Promotion, Voter Registration
 - Source: See attached list

The Santa Fe Mountain Center (SFMC)

- Program is an action-oriented, experienced-based approach to personal growth. Participants may be asked to become engaged in a series of mentally and physically challenging activities such as cooperative games, trust building activities, problem-solving initiatives, adventure challenge courses, Wilderness Experience Programs and expressive arts activities. During the following the activities, discussions or debriefings focus on seeing and understanding communication patterns, relationships, problem-solving techniques, and areas of competence.
 - Source: 505-983-6158

Cooperative Extension Service

- 4-H youth development program, Family Consumer Science (parenting classes, nutrition classes, family finance management) Rural Agricultural Improvement and Public Affairs Project (Life stock Production, Crop Production, Urban Horticultural, Rural Economic Development Through Tourism, County College, Home Economics, School Enrichment Program
 - Source: www.cahe.nmsu.edu

Centro San Jose Para Ninos Y Familas

- Source: 232-9803 7401 Copper Ave. NE – Albuquerque, New Mexico 87108